I give ALL of the glory to my Father God, the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit for the collection of books which He has written and for the illustrations - ALL of which would not have been possible without Him. He instructed me to put the copyright in my name and I have obeyed. God's Loving World Ministries™ is a Christian Literacy organization whose mission is to teach remedial reading, writing, math, and English to English as a Second Language Learners.

Psalm 115:1 reads

"1 Not to us, LORD, not to us
but to your name be the glory, because of your love and faithfulness." (NIV)

and Psalm 45:1 reads:

"1 My heart is stirred by a noble theme as I recite my verses for the king;
my tongue is the pen of a skillful writer." (NIV)

When you look up a word in a dictionary, you will find many words. You will ALSO find that even ONE word can be a member of several different Parts of Speech depending on how it is used in a sentence. As you read this book, you may find words listed as one form of speech and it also may be listed as another Part of Speech too.

This IS NOT an error. I could not give all of the possible definitions for every word or this book would be hundreds of pages long.

Please consult a dictionary if needed.

You've got a Proper Name and if you are a Christian, you also carry the name of Christ. The question is: How will you carry BOTH of those names throughout your lifetime?

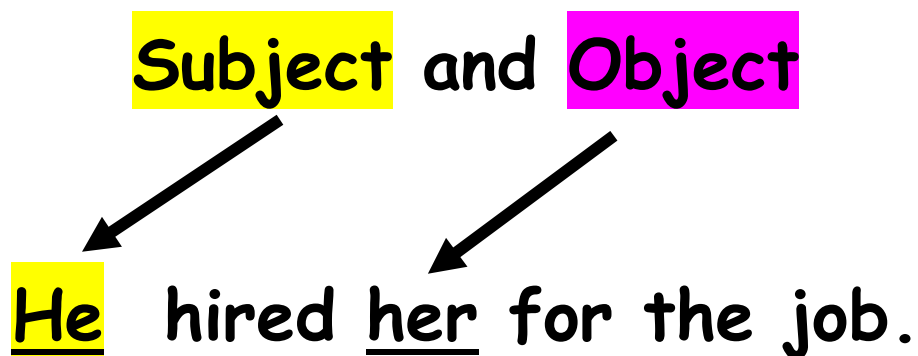

A Pronoun is a word that takes the place of a Noun. Without Pronouns, our writing would be very repetitive and boring, because we would need to repeat the person's name over and over again.

For Example: "Cindy liked to play basketball. Cindy could really dribble the ball. Cindy could shoot and get a basket from mid-court."

Imagine just how repetitive it would be if it were a whole paragraph or story! BORING!
When personal pronouns are used instead, it sounds less repetitive.

“Cindy liked to play basketball and she could really dribble the ball. She could also shoot from mid-court and still score.”

There are 2 types of Personal Pronouns:

The Subject Pronoun is DOING the action.

The Object Pronoun is RECEIVING the action.

Possessive Pronouns express WHO OWNS possession.

Reflexive Pronouns refer back to who the subject is. For example: "Oh, I burned myself!"

When people write, it can be from the 1st person position or perspective. In other words, the person is writing about his/herself or from his/her perspective or opinion.

OR

A group of people can also write about themselves from a 1st person plural position as a GROUP. If people are working together for one cause, this is how they would write on a website - from the 1st person plural position.

Perspective	Subjective (Does the action)	Objective (Receives the action)	Possessive Pronouns	Reflexive Pronouns (Refers back to the Subject)
1 st Person	I	me	mine	myself
1 st Person Plural	we	us	ours	ourselves

A writer can also write from the perspective of 2nd person.

In REAL LIFE, in the Bible, the Apostle Paul speaks right to the people, they are characters in the story called LIFE! He is giving a sermon and sermons are GOOD examples of 2nd person writing. For example:

1 Corinthians 1:26 - 31

"²⁶ Brothers and sisters, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth. ²⁷ But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. ²⁸ God chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are, ²⁹ so that no one may boast before him. ³⁰ It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God—that is, our righteousness, holiness and redemption. ³¹ Therefore, as it is written: “Let the one who boasts boast in the Lord.”^[d] (NIV)

There ARE other forms of Non-fiction 2nd person writing though, for example, writing that is meant to be a script for a video or an article that gives directions to make something, for example, a recipe. The writer would have to directly address the reader as “you.” For Example: “You beat 2 eggs slightly and then add them to the dry ingredients...” Second person writing is also used in advertising, when companies try to get you to buy their product. This is advertising that uses the words “you” or “your.”

In fictional writing, 2nd person writing means you as the author, are speaking right to the reader, as though they were a part of the story. The writer addresses the reader as if he/she is actually one of the people involved in the action.

Perspective	Subjective (Does the action)	Objective (Receives the action)	Possessive Pronouns	Reflexive Pronouns (Refers back to the subject)
2nd Person	you	you	yours	yourself
2nd Person Plural	you	you	yourself	yourselves

The 3rd person perspective or point of view, is when the writer serves as the narrator, describing the actions of the characters and events in the story.

This is story telling.

Perspective	Subjective (Does the action)	Objective (Receives the action)	Possessive Pronouns	Reflexive Pronouns (Refers back to the Subject)
3rd Person MALE	he	him	his	himself
3rd Person FEMALE	she	her	hers	herself
3 rd Person Things/Ideas	it	it	its	itself
3rd Person Plural	they	them	theirs	themselves

An Indefinite Pronoun doesn't refer to a specific thing or person.

Some of the most Common Indefinite Pronouns
all another any anybody anyone anything both each either enough everybody everyone everything few	many most neither no one nobody none nothing one several some somebody someone something

The word to "interrogate" means to ask questions, hence "Interrogative Pronouns" are used to ask questions.

Some of the Most Common Interrogative Pronouns	Used to ask questions
what	whom
whatever	whomever
whatsoever	whomsoever
which	whose
whichever	whosever
who	whosoever
whoever

Reciprocal Pronouns mean that 2 people or animals are carrying out some activity between the 2 individuals/animals involved. Examples of Reciprocal Pronouns are:

each other & one another

The word "demonstrate" means to show someone or to point out a particular item.

Demonstrative Pronouns are used to show or point out a particular subject matter.

Examples are:

this

these (Plural)

that those (Plural)

Distributive Pronouns refer to individual people or things rather than a group.

Examples are:

each, either, neither

Relative Pronouns establish a relationship between the subject and the action taking place. Examples are:

that what whatever when which whichever who whoever

whom

We like to give everyone an opportunity to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Let's pray!

Lord Jesus the Christ,
I've made so many mistakes I must confess.
I repent of them now and turn from them.
I no longer want that mess.
Lord Jesus, I believe you are the Son of God and believe in your resurrection.
I want to be a child of God
and receive your love and affection.
Lord Jesus the Christ be my Savior.
Come into my heart.
Cleanse me now of all unrighteousness and give me a brand-new start.
I ask for the baptism of the Holy Spirit.
and the baptism by Holy fire too.

I WANT to be changed and to do the RIGHT things

I need help from you.

Please help me to read, write, and do my math.

I want to start learning today.

I want my life to take a turn and start in a whole new way.

Thank you, Lord Jesus, for helping me to learn.

I KNOW you can help make my ability, greater than anyone ever imagined
and bring back my self-respect and dignity.

I ask this in the name of the Lord Jesus the Christ.

I say "Amen" and make it sure.

Now I'll start learning the RIGHT way.

I KNOW Lord Jesus, YOU are the door.

AMEN!

What should you do now as a new Christian?

You should also be baptized by immersion, meaning that you're dunked totally under the water, you are dunked and brought right back up, that's the way Christ was baptized and we're supposed to follow HIS example of what to do. So, be baptized by immersion and then ask the Lord where you should be going to church. What is the church that He would like you to go to?
