PRESENT PROGRESSIVE OR CONTINUOUS

PRESENT - ACTION IN PROGRESS

I am decreeing a holiday!

You are eyeing the wrong guy!

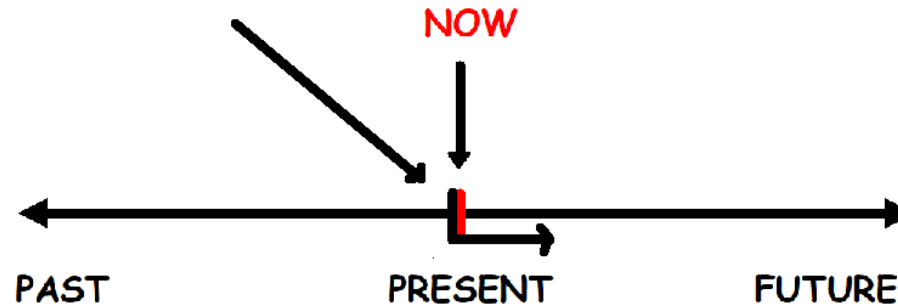

He is agreeing with us.

She is disagreeing with us.

It is dyeing the yarn red.

We are freeing the bird.

They are guaranteeing our purchase.

PAST PROGRESSIVE OR CONTINUOUS

PAST - ACTION IN PROGRESS

I was glueing the chair.

You were agreeing to the deal just when the other employee said there was a price reduction. (One action is in progress when another action interrupts it.)

He was freeing the goose when his mate showed up.

She was tiptoeing on her little feet
when she slipped and fell.

It was treeing the squirrel.

We were disagreeing, until she clarified her comment.

They were eyeing the results of the crash when the Police showed up at the scene.

FUTURE PROGRESSIVE OR CONTINUOUS

FUTURE - ACTIONS THAT WILL BE IN PROGRESS

I will be glueing the chair this afternoon.

We will be freeing the chickens by the time you arrive with the new feed.

You will be dyeing the wool tomorrow.

He will be freeing the raccoons Tuesday in the woods.

She will be guaranteeing the workmanship for 5 years.

The dog will be eyeing every animal in the vet's office tomorrow.

They will be agreeing to the sale, once one issue is settled with FHA.

PRESENT - EVENTS THAT START IN THE PAST, ARE STILL OCCURRING, AND COULD CONTINUE, THAT ARE PERTINENT TO PRESENT CONVERSATION

I have been eyeing that dress for months now and may eventually buy it.

You have been disagreeing with Mom about this subject for years now and I hope you will come to an agreement.

He has been guaranteeing his workmanship for years and I hope he continues to do so.

She has been dyeing wool, carding it, spinning it, and selling it for many years now and she's still enjoying her work.

We have been freeing animals after healing them for the last 20 years and we don't expect to stop now.

They have been tiptoeing into my garden every spring for the last 40 years and I will look forward to their arrival again.

PAST PERFECT PROGRESSIVE OR CONTINUOUS

PAST - 1 CONTINUOUS EVENT THAT IS INTERRUPTED BY ANOTHER EVENT

I had been eyeing that dress to buy it when another lady took it to the register.

You had been agreeing with one another until the last statement was made.

He had been dyeing the yarn when the boss came to tell him his shift was ending.

She had been tiptoeing through the garden until she turned her ankle and fell.

It had been treeing the squirrel, until it saw the cat and ran after it instead.

We had been freeing time for pleasure until our work orders got backed up.

The Senate had been disagreeing for hours when the President Pro Tempore hammered the gavel.

FUTURE PERFECT PROGRESSIVE OR CONTINUOUS

FUTURE - ONE EVENT THAT BEGINS IN THE PAST, OR PRESENT THAT CONTINUES INTO THE FUTURE UNTIL ANOTHER EVENT INTERRUPTS IT, A FUTURE DATE BRINGS IT TO COMPLETION, OR A GOAL IS ATTAINED.

I will have been glueing furniture for 5 hours before my replacement arrives.

One year from now, you will have been dyeing, carding, and weaving wool for 20 years.

This coming New Year's Day, he will have been treating health issues and freeing wild animals for 30 years.

She will have been disagreeing with her colleagues in the House of Representatives for 2 hours before the gavel hits the desk.

The hound will have been treeing the gray fox for hours before his owner gets through the briar patches and thickets to follow him.

We will have been guaranteeing good customer service for 25 years come this autumn.

They will have been eyeing each other lovingly for 50 years come this anniversary.
