

Christ the King of kings

It's chronicled in history archives...

Since epochs long ago...

Lord Jesus Christ died on the cross for you.

To save you from hell's woe.

Christ has a loving chemistry about Him.

He brought forgiveness for your sin.

He knows every thought within your psyche.

He knows your heart and what's within.

HE CAN be your anchor.

He's the one who heals all aches and pains.

Even amidst the chaos,

In heaven HE STILL reigns.

In trials and troubles...

Call upon HIS name.

Turn to Him for help.

He'll destroy all sin and shame.

Repent now, for all evil that you've done.

End Satan's anarchy.

Christ will make you white as snow.

He'll take your sins away, you see.

Get and READ the Bible.

Be baptized by immersion.

You will start a NEW life

You're on a new excursion.

Let Christ be your teacher
Let Christ's character shine through.
It is HIS charisma,
That can form HIS character in you.

Every time someone receives HIM...
Angelic choirs sing chords of praise.
May thanksgiving echo throughout the land.
May Christian voices raise!
