I give ALL of the glory to my Father God, the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit for the collection of books which He has written and for the illustrations - ALL of which would not have been possible without Him. He instructed me to put the copyright in my name and I have obeyed. Psalm 115:1

"¹ Not to us, LORD, not to us
but to your name be the glory,
because of your love and faithfulness." (NIV)

Psalm 45:1

"¹ My heart is stirred by a noble theme
as I recite my verses for the king;
my tongue is the pen of a skillful writer." (NIV)

God's Letter Sound Series

Some people incorrectly teach that an R always controls a vowel. This is NOT TRUE!
There ARE exceptions.

When DOESN'T an R Control a vowel?

Let's find out with the word "arose," meaning past tense of "arise." When I say, "past tense" it means the word is referring to something that has already happened. Using the word in a sentence we could say, "The sun arose at 6:30 this morning."

So, in that word "arose" is the vowel controlled by the Rr?

Here is where syllabication comes into play. To count the syllables in a word, just put your hand under your chin and say the word slowly. As you go, count the number of times your chin hits your hand.

The count that you get tells you how many syllables there are in the word.

Let's say the word "arose" and see. Hold your hand under your chin and say the word "arose" meaning past tense of "arise."

"a-rose" - The word "arose" has 2 syllables. The "A" makes the sound "uh" and is operating totally on its own in a separate syllable - "a-rose." In that word the letter R IS NOT controlling the vowel sound.

Lord Jesus the Christ,

I've made so many mistakes I must confess.

I repent of them now and turn from them.

I no longer want that mess.

Lord Jesus, I believe you are the Son of God and believe in your resurrection.

I want to be a child of God
and receive your love and affection.

Lord Jesus the Christ be my Savior.

Come into my heart.

Cleanse me now of all unrighteousness
and give me a brand-new start.

I ask for the baptism of the Holy Spirit and the baptism by Holy fire too.

I WANT to be changed and to do the RIGHT things
I need help from you.

Please help me to read, write, and do my math.

I want to start learning today.

I want my life to take a turn
and start in a whole new way.

Thank you, Lord Jesus, for helping me to learn.

I KNOW you can help make my ability,
greater than anyone ever imagined
and bring back my self-respect and dignity.

I ask this in the name of the Lord Jesus the Christ.

I say "Amen" and make it sure.

Now I'll start learning the RIGHT way.

I KNOW Lord Jesus, YOU are the door.

AMEN!

What should you do now as a new Christian?

You should also be baptized by immersion, meaning that you're dunked totally under the water, you are dunked and brought right back up, that's the way Christ was baptized and we're supposed to follow HIS example of what to do. So, be baptized by immersion and then ask the Lord where you should be going to church. What is the church that He would like you to go to?
