I give ALL of the glory to my Father God, the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit for the collection of books which He has written and for the illustrations and lessons He has created - ALL of which would not have been possible without Him. He instructed me to put the copyright in my name and I have obeyed. Psalm 115:1

"<sup>1</sup> Not to us, LORD, not to us
but to your name be the glory,
because of your love and faithfulness." (NIV)

The word "Digraph" has 2 parts: "di" meaning 2 and
"graph" meaning
written. A "digraph" means there are 2
written letters that make 1 spoken sound.

The word "Trigraph" has 3 parts: "Tri"
meaning 3 and "graph"
meaning written. A
"Trigraph" means there are 3 written letters that make 1 spoken sound.

The word
"Quadgraph" has 4
parts: "Quad"
meaning 4 and "graph"
meaning written. A
"Quadgraph" means
there are 4 written letters that make 1
spoken sound.

Every Vowel Diphthong with 2 vowels IS ALSO a Digraph. A problem arises with diphthongs because vowels come together in MORE THAN just groups of 2. For example: in the word "beau" which makes the long Oo sound. We choose NOT to use the term "diphthong," because it is VERY confusing to people. Instead, we group them all together under one of three terms: - Vowel and Consonant Digraphs, Trigraphs, or Quadgraphs.

These are the most common digraphs, trigraphs, and quadgraphs. The more familiar you make yourself with words that have these letters and sounds and in what words they do occur, the more you will remember them.

The more you read them, the more fluent you will become as a reader - meaning you will read accurately, smoother, and faster.

NDK in "handkerchief" is influenced by the vowel= the sound "ank." (the Dd is Silent)

NG as in "King."

NG can be used as a digraph, a blend, or within a compound word. Just because you see NG together don't assume it is a digraph. Remember, a digraph is when 2 written letters make one sound. Let's look at the difference.

In the Digraph NG used in "tongu," you don't hear the "n" sound or the "g" sound. The "NG" sound is different and makes a unique sound of it's own. It is 1 sound.

In the Blend NG used in "messenger" you hear the "n" sound and the soft "g" sound. You hear 2 distinct sounds.

In the Compound word "mangrove," you hear 2 distinct sounds as well, "n" and hard "g", and they do not blend together.

The NG digraph produces a sound which is neither the Nn sound nor the Gg sound. It makes the sound of "NG." Let's look at all 5 vowels when used with the "NG" sound with the consonant Ss in the front.

sang (With a Short Aa Sound)	seng (With a Short Ee Sound)	sing (The Ii sounds like a Long Ee)	song (The Oo sounds like "Aw.")	sung (With a Short Uu Sound)
--	--	---	---	--

When you say those words you do not hear the Nn sound nor the Gg sounds (soft or hard). The word "seng" shown above is a nonsense word, but it can be found in the word "ginseng."

Here are some words with the Digraph NG as in
"King"

Lord Jesus the Christ,

I've made so many mistakes I must confess.

I repent of them now and turn from them.

I no longer want that mess.

Lord Jesus, I believe you are the Son of God and believe in your resurrection.

I want to be a child of God and receive your love and affection.

Lord Jesus the Christ be my Savior.

Come into my heart.

Cleanse me now of all unrighteousness and give me a brand-new start.

I ask for the baptism of the Holy Spirit and the baptism by Holy fire too.

I WANT to be changed and to do the RIGHT things
I need help from you.

Please help me to read, write, and do my math.

I want to start learning today.

I want my life to take a turn and start in a whole new way.

Thank you, Lord Jesus, for helping me to learn.

I KNOW you can help make my ability,
greater than anyone ever imagined
and bring back my self-respect and dignity.

I ask this in the name of the Lord Jesus the Christ.

I say "Amen" and make it sure.

Now I'll start learning the RIGHT way.

I KNOW Lord Jesus, YOU are the door.

AMEN!

What should you do now as a new Christian?

You should also be baptized by immersion, meaning that you're dunked totally under the water, you are dunked and brought right back up, that's the way Christ was baptized and we're supposed to follow HIS example of what to do. So, be baptized by immersion and then ask the Lord where you should be going to church. What is the church that He would like you to go to?
