In this book you will see the word "ferry" used.

The word FERRY can refer to a boat or ship used to carry not only people, but also their cars from one land mass to another. It can also mean to TRANSPORT anywhere, by any possible means: by air, truck, boat, car, etc. This book uses the term "ferry" to refer to transporting by a small boat. The man in our illustration is ferrying or transporting blueberries to a new location.

In the past, wooden logs were tied together to make rafts used by "ferryman" to help people, their horses, and their belongings cross from one side of a river to another. The ferryman used a long pole to push the raft across the river. Those rafts, were also referred to as a "ferries."

Now, ferries (plural form) can be used to transport only a small number of people and their vehicles or a larger amount. Large ferries are large boats or ships that can hold even over 100 cars and the people who drive them. On the following pages you will see some photos of different types of ferries used today to transport BOTH people and their cars to a new land location by way of a ferry boat/ship.

Boats that are used to carry small numbers of people from one land mass to another WITHOUT their cars are often called "water taxis."

about 2 to 4 vehicles (depending on their size) from one side of a river to another.

This is an example of a large ferry that can carry both people and cars from one land mass to another. One Canadian ferry that crosses from Vancouver, Canada to Victoria, Canada can hold approximately 115 vehicles.

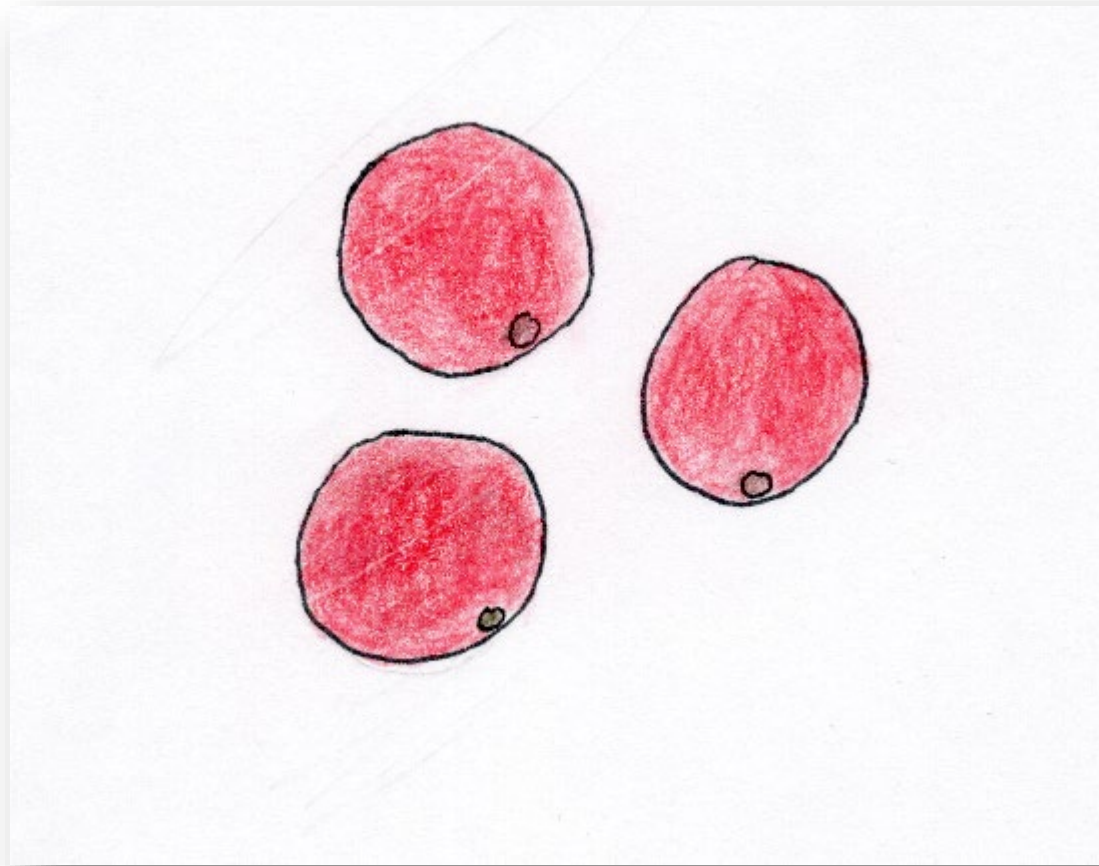

Some ferries have multiple decks for cars, trucks, and buses. This is what it looks like on the top deck of the ferry that crosses Lake Champlain from New York to Vermont. It holds approximately 50 cars plus the people that drive them. It is approximately a one-hour trip. You can see that it has lifeboats just like any other ship. Some ferries have lounges and places for people to eat too.

Lord Jesus the Christ,

I've made so many mistakes I must confess.

I repent of them now and turn from them.

I no longer want that mess.

Lord Jesus, I believe you are the Son of God and believe in your resurrection.

I want to be a child of God
and receive your love and affection.

Lord Jesus the Christ be my Savior.

Come into my heart.

Cleanse me now of all unrighteousness and give me a brand-new start.

I ask for the baptism of the Holy Spirit and the baptism by Holy fire too.

I WANT to be changed and to do the RIGHT things
I need help from you.

Please help me to read, write, and do my math.

I want to start learning today.

I want my life to take a turn and start in a whole new way.

Thank you, Lord Jesus, for helping me to learn.

I KNOW you can help make my ability,
greater than anyone ever imagined
and bring back my self-respect and dignity.

I ask this in the name of the Lord Jesus the Christ.

I say "Amen" and make it sure.

Now I'll start learning the RIGHT way.

I KNOW Lord Jesus, YOU are the door.

AMEN!

What should you do now as a new Christian?

You should also be baptized by immersion, meaning that you're dunked totally under the water, you are dunked and brought right back up, that's the way Christ was baptized.

He said we're supposed to follow HIS example and be baptized in the name of the Father, the Son - the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit.

He told us what to do.

So, be baptized by immersion and then ask the Lord where you should be going to church.

What is the church that He would like you to go to?
