I give ALL of the glory to my Father God, the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit for the collection of books which He has written and for the illustrations - ALL of which would not have been possible without Him. He instructed me to put the copyright in my name and I have obeyed. God's Loving World Ministries™ is a Christian Literacy organization whose mission is to teach remedial reading, writing, math, and English to English as a Second Language Learners.

Psalm 115:1 reads

"1 Not to us, LORD, not to us
but to your name be the glory,
because of your love and faithfulness." (NIV)

When you look up a word in a dictionary, you will find many words. You will ALSO find that even ONE word can be a member of several different Parts of Speech depending on how it is used in a sentence. As you read this book, you may find words listed as one form of speech and it also may be listed as another Part of Speech in another context.

This IS NOT an error. I could not give all of the possible definitions for every word or this book would be hundreds of pages long.

Please consult a dictionary if needed.

Conjunctions, as a whole, can be one or more words, that join words, phrases, and complete simple sentences together (along with appropriate punctuation when needed).

The Most Common Conjunctions are called "Coordinating Conjunctions." The word "Coordinating" can mean anything that is of equal rank or importance that works together with other parts of the whole. A "Coordinator" is a person who organizes groups of people to work together to complete a task. "Coordinating Conjunctions" join words, phrases, or two complete simple sentences that express ideas of equal importance together. "Coordinating Conjunctions" can be remembered by the mnemonic device FANBOYS.

Coordinating Conjunctions

- for - The word "for" is not used often as a Conjunction in modern day language, for it is actually very old fashioned. (It IS used in historical fiction and non-fiction.)
- and - The bees flew throughout the garden and they gathered nectar along the way.
- nor - You should not drink, smoke, nor take drugs.

- but - I not only completed my school work, but also worked in the garden.
- or - Do you want to go on vacation to the beach, or to the mountains?
- yet - Susan once had a ski accident, yet she still skis today.
- so - Joe didn't know how to swim, so he went fishing instead.

Subordinating Conjunctions

The word Subordinate means one thing is of less rank and importance than another. "Subordinating Conjunctions" = a stand-alone sentence or clause that expresses a MAIN IDEA + a clause that ADDS additional information to it. Some are:

We like to give everyone an opportunity to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Let's pray!

Lord Jesus the Christ,
I've made so many mistakes I must confess.
I repent of them now and turn from them.
I no longer want that mess.
Lord Jesus, I believe you are the Son of God
and believe in your resurrection.
I want to be a child of God
and receive your love and affection.
Lord Jesus the Christ be my Savior.
Come into my heart.
Cleanse me now of all unrighteousness
and give me a brand-new start.
I ask for the baptism of the Holy Spirit and the baptism by Holy fire too.

I WANT to be changed and to do the RIGHT things

I need help from you.

Please help me to read, write, and do my math.

I want to start learning today.

I want my life to take a turn and start in a whole new way.

Thank you, Lord Jesus, for helping me to learn.

I KNOW you can help make my ability,
greater than anyone ever imagined
and bring back my self-respect and dignity.

I ask this in the name of the Lord Jesus the Christ.

I say "Amen" and make it sure.

Now I'll start learning the RIGHT way.

I KNOW Lord Jesus, YOU are the door.

AMEN!

What should you do now as a new Christian?

You should also be baptized by immersion, meaning that you're dunked totally under the water, you are dunked and brought right back up, that's the way Christ was baptized and we're supposed to follow HIS example of what to do. So, be baptized by immersion and then ask the Lord where you should be going to church. What is the church that He would like you to go to?
